An Aztec Wedding, A Trip In Time

The robots give the would-be lady astronaut a hard time (above). The Aztec wedding party completes the ceremony (upper right). Below, the Robots guard the Time Machine. The language classes entertained everyone with their annual assembly.

Elections 1968

ABOVE: Halls become masses of signs, voters, and candidates. BELOW: Sporting her own sign, Joyce Bradley helps herself to Shirley Bovenkamp's campaign buttons.

Clever Signs And Original Skits Highlight Campaigns For A.S.B. Offices

Lynden Lions' Laugh-In keeps things exciting. .Velly Intellesting? Skits and speeches with sparkling originality make the nominating assembly a thrilling climax to Campaign Week.

Freshmen

We The Youth Of America
Are The Faces Of Freedom. . .

Freedom is our greatest heritage.

May we remember to preserve it,

share it,

and love it forever.

It is the gift of God.

The 1967-68 "Simba" staff wishes to express our sincerest gratitude to R. Wallace Pischel, Inc., and Burt Durham, Russ Clift and his studio, The Lynden Chamber of Commerce, our advisors, student photographers, and everyone who helped in the smallest way. "Simba" is the product of many individuals' efforts. Thank you to all of them.
